Summary

Since, I have been in the field of C.S., I have seen so many Ideas of people around the Internet, where even I try to contribute and build a better version of myself. Not just being a contributor, but also the self made projects, like websites, for the small and local businesses and apps for growthing others! In short this field of C.S. will give you what you want, but you have to swap your control of future to your present.
